Befimmo at a glance

For more than 30 years, Befimmo has been developing a high-quality, high-performance portfolio consisting mainly of offices, mixed-use buildings and coworking spaces.

Befimmo's value creation priority is to provide stimulating, integrated, hybrid and sustainable living and working spaces that respond to the main trends that are already shaping tomorrow's world.

Sustainability criteria have become a natural extension of this strategy and drive us to innovate.

You just finished (or are about to finish) your Master's degree?

At Befimmo, each year, we propose to one or more candidates with higher education (Master level) to join us for a two year internship, where you get the opportunity to work within various departments. While there are no guarantees, you might, at the end of your internship secure a starter role at Befimmo. An internship at Befimmo offers a unique chance to interact with a diverse range of people, build your professional network, and gain insight into various aspects of business - setting you up for success in your future career endeavors!

Befimmo has several departments that are willing to train the candidates, such as Controlling, Asset & Property Management, ESG, Marketing & Communication.

What's in it for you?

- A motivating job, a true implication in our processes.
- The opportunity to switch departments every 8 months and so acquire various skills
- During your internship, you will be considered at a true member of our team, with the same challenges and advantages as all our colleagues.
